“It seems so obvious: If we invent a machine, the first thing we are going to do—after making a profit—is use it to watch porn. When the projector was invented roughly a century ago, the first movies were not of damsels in distress tied to train tracks or Charlie Chaplin-style slapsticks; they were stilted porn shorts called stag films. VHS became the dominant standard for VCRs largely because Sony wouldn’t allow pornographers to use Betamax; the movie industry followed porn’s lead. DVDs, the Internet, cell phones. you name it, pornography planted its big flag there first, or at least shortly thereafter” 19 (Damon Brown, author of Porn and Pong).

Porn and your Investments

I topic that has been on my heart lately has been our wallets and porn. The thought actually happened to cross my mind when I was teaching through the old testament book of Habakkuk on Wednesday night at C.C.F. as Pastor Scott was out of town.

IN that small book there is a chapter that reminds me a bunch of Matthew 23 the famous, “Woe to the scribes and Pharisees” section.

In Habakkuk I read:

“Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, and be delivered from disaster!”

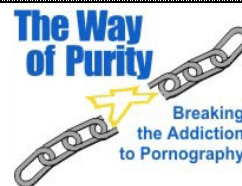

“Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed, who establishes a city by iniquity!”

I thought when reading these passages, “how many of us invest our money in a IRA or some type of mutual fund and have no clue what we are investing in?” If you are like me then maybe you also have thought this. I don’t want to invest in the porn and I’m sure you don’t either.

So I have put together a list from the Seeking Alpha web site called “Nine Adult Entertainment Stocks to Weather the Recession.” You might want to give a copy to your agent or broker. It’s a good thing to be sure we are not living nice while investing in yuck.

A TESTEMONY!

I was stuck in self-gratification for two whole years. It was terrible, and the small amount of pleasure I got out of it was nothing compared to the guilt I would feel after; I can't even explain it. I was locked in chains and felt as if I couldn't do anything at all. I always felt guilty at church and stuff because I knew what I was doing was wrong, but couldn't stop. But God saved me! One night I just cried out to God and he literally ran in and scooped me out of the muck I had put myself in. I yelled for him, "Where are you God? I HATE this! Please save me; get me away from this!" Then I found the Setting Captives Free course, started as soon as I could, and became totally freed from it all! Now I feel pure and happy. I feel as though Jesus could come back any time and I would be ready to go home. Jesus saved me; he can save anyone. Just have faith, and your life will become pure and holy! Amen!
